NVQ Circular 09/2024

Cancellation of Accreditation of Courses which no NVQ Certificates Issued

It has observed that some institutes obtain accreditation for certain courses but fail to conduct NVQ assessments and issue NVQ certificates. Consequently, students who complete such courses deprive obtaining national qualifications for employment and further education.

The TVEC has decided to cancel the accreditation of such courses at the accreditation renewal stage unless the institutes take steps to conduct NVQ assessments and award national qualifications.

This regulation will be effective from 1st September 2024.
